Monday 14th March – Performing Arts Practical Exam (fully assessed ‘real’ exam).

- French speaking exams will take place during lessons.
- There will be no examinations in this window for BTEC subjects as they have already been taken.
- Toast will be provided (free of charge) for all students from 8am onwards during each day of the exam period.
- It is imperative students you are sat in the canteen and registered by 8:25 each morning. To help you, the exam timings have been scheduled to avoid disturbances at break and lunch times.
- Full exam regulations will apply:
 - Students will need a clear pencil case.
 - Bottles of water can be taken into the exams but labels must be peeled off.
 - Mobile phones and wrist watches must not be ‘on person’ in the exam room. Students will be able to leave their belongings in the activity studio. All exams will take place in the Sports Hall unless access arrangements are in place.

Good luck guys! Stay calm and try your best. Any answer is better than no answer, so try not to leave gaps. You’ve absolutely got this; regardless of what happens, remember we are in this together until the end.
